

Transnational Project Event in Calabria

The event took place between the 16th and 19th of February 2019.

On the first day of the event and after the delegations arrived in Calabria, they had a welcome dinner with local authorities & NGOs representatives.

The second day started with Tree Planting at Marina of the Graces, to commemorate the project. Later took place a public seminar about the role of local communities in the promotion of active citizenship, volunteering, and solidarity, and a visit to the town. The day concluded with a European cuisine night, organized in cooperation with all partner delegations.

The third day, started with a visit to the project Jungi Mundu in the village of Camini, and a meeting with Eurocoop Servizi. In the afternoon the delegations exchanged experiences and practices on the reception of refugees.

The event concluded on the morning of the fourth day with a press conference.
